5. Discussion – Transportation and Placement of non-injured and injured people in a disaster situation:

Concern was where we would lodge a mass group of people and how we would transfer that mass group of people to those lodgings.

Lodging will depend on nature of mass group of people, depending on the nature of the displaced people, the lodging may have to be isolated

EHS could be involved depending on the reason for the displacement

Red Cross could have a role: who would we contact for Red Cross

A local state of emergency could be called by local government depending on how the people came to be displaced. A broken down tour bus v. a disaster

Transportation it is believed that Bayside Home may already have an existing MOU with the Dept. of Education to use school buses. This MOU will be sought out by Chair Jim Newell and if this MOU exists, it can be adapted to meet EMOs needs
